Dear Sir:-

Enclosed check for $5.25 which you overremitted. You can readily see how the error was made as in your figuration you omitted 1869 Octagonal gold dollar (California).

There was also sent you on the 12th the 1859 D. Mint gold dollar which probably you have not received, as you might be at some other place, but am sending you this check so as to balance this bill.

Forgot to thank you in my previous letter to the omission made in the previous bill and to which you called my attention. Very much regret that lot 46 and 419 are out. As the coins ~~xxxx~~ in very good condition that you wish to trade in are not of any great value in the condition it would not hardly pay to send such small quantity separately.

I'm sending you such coins as I think will suit you. Have some of the other pec. but did not pick them out as I did not think they were quite up to grade.

22 West 57th Street,
New York City,
March 10th, 1920.

Dear Mr. Hesslein:

I have received the package of coins and am very well satisfied with them, and shall keep them all. I enclose you my cheque for $441.53, being the amount of your bill less 45¢ for an overcharge by error for Lot 120.

There are a considerable number of other coins in your list, chiefly mint marks, which I should like to add to my collection. I therefore enclose herewith a list of the pieces I wish and I should be much obliged if you would send them addressed to my secretary, as follows: Miss B. Evans, c/o Mr. John W. Garrett, 22 West 57th Street, New York. Miss Evans will take charge of the package and will send you my cheque, which I am leaving with her, for the amount that may be due after she has checked up your list and the coins you send. I would like to ask you to be particularly careful not to send a single piece that is not without the least doubt fully up to the condition as stated.

Very truly yours,

William Hesslein, Esq.,

Dear Mr. Hesslein:-

I am returning the two Grant coins you sent me in the hope you will be able to pick out for me somewhat better specimens than these two are. Even if it takes a little waiting I should prefer that to putting in my collection two specimens which are not really very good.

I also enclose a list of some coins I should be much obliged if you would send me on approval from Part 2 of your Catalog No. 29.

Dear Sir:-

I have just returned home and find your letter of April 12th in regard to the 1870 S Mint Silver Dollar. I have practically stopped buying American coins and do not care to add this one to my collection.

Yours very truly,

Dear Mr. Garrett:

I have in my possession an 1870 S Mint Silver Dollar. While it is not an extremely fine coin, nevertheless, it is in fine condition. At some time or other it has probably been badly abused in the field on the obverse though this is hardly noticeable and the coin is good enough to grace any cabinet.

There are but two or three pieces known. The other is better and is held for a large amount and as I understand it, $2500 is asked for it.

I am asking $1300 for this coin and I only get a small percentage for handling it. It is an excessively rare piece and if it graces your collection, you will have a piece that is worth while. The Mint records does not show any coinage of this piece whatsoever.

If you are interested in this piece, will be pleased to send it to you for your approval.

Very truly yours,

William Hesslein
